Dear Sir:

In the Notice of Drawing Inconsistency with Specification dated 05/20/2005, the Publishing Division has pointed to an inconsistency between the drawings and the Brief Description of the Drawings in the specification. Specifically, the Publishing Division found Figure 80 as being listed in the Brief Description of the Drawings in the specification, but not contained in the Drawings. Applicants respectfully submit that Figure 80 is contained in the drawings filed 01/13/2002. Specifically, Figure 80 is shown on page 34 of the submitted drawings. Applicants have included a copy of page 34 of the drawing shown on the PAIR system, attached hereto as Exhibit "A." As illustrated by the copy, Figure 80 is on the same page as Figures 41 – 45. This page of the drawing, which includes Figures 41 – 45 and 80, was also submitted as page 7 of the Drawings filed 11/22/2004. Applicants have included a copy of page 7 of the drawing shown on the PAIR system, attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

Accordingly, Applicants respectfully submit that there is no inconsistency between the drawings description and the Brief Description of the Drawings filed 01/13/20002, and that the application is now in condition for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

STATTLER, JOHANSEN & ADELI LLP
